On April 5, 2007, John Mendiola submitted to urinalysis which tested presumptive positive for marijuana. He admitted to smoking the drug on April 4, 2007, stating that he has been "stressed out" because he is not making enough money to pay his restitution, and is having a difficult time finding a second job. Mr. Mendiola was returned to the start of the year-long substance abuse testing and treatment program. This is his first noted incident of noncompliant behavior since his term of supervised release commenced on December 29, 2006.

Mr. Mendiola is gainfully employed and is making restitution payments in the amount of $400 per month. He is performing community service and paid his special assessment fee in full. No further action is being recommended at this time.
